Summary

Freelance .NET web developer with more than 15 years professional experience with web development, working on projects for Nuon, Waternet, NIKE, IKEA, Kellogg's, Danmarks Radio, Louis Poulsen, Contour Design and many many others.

Specialized in Episerver CMS and Umbraco CMS and have an excellent understanding of most other content management systems.

I work well independently as well as in a team. I have worked on both small and large projects. I have worked in organisations with multiple Scrum teams and I am experienced with the DevOps principles and practices.

I am very passionate about my work. I work fast and adapt fast, and I deliver! I actively help to lift the projects I am involved in and work independently, knowledgeable and focused. I will be a valuable asset to your project or team.

Skills

Below you will find a selection of the most relevant and important skills I have acquired during my time working as a professional web developer. The complete list is much longer.

I have worked with Microsoft .NET my entire career, and specialized in implementation and development with Umbraco CMS and Episerver CMS. That makes me an excellent choice for any .NET based project.

My roles and responsibilities have varied from project to project: Mostly I was a Backend or Full-Stack developer part of a Scrum team. I am very experienced with Scrum and worked with the DevOps principles.

Additionally, I have managed apps and hosting on Azure and done continuous integration and delivery on Microsoft Azure DevOps.

Clients

Not all my assignments are from digital agencies. I have worked for a number of clients of my own. This list are clients I have had the closest and longest relationships with.

Client	Description
Contour Design	The ones who made the ergonomic Roller Mouse. I developed the Contour Design website and for a number of years I helped them with new implementations so the platform could keep up with new initiatives from the marketing department. www.contourdesign.com
Dynasource	Helping Microsoft professionals find the right projects, or organisations find the right Microsoft professionals. I helped Dynasource with development of new features on their Umbraco based marketing website. www.dynasource.com
FDIH	The Danish E-commerce Association. I worked for FDIH for three years developing and maintaining their website. The website includes a member portal, event booking and a webshop. www.fdi.dk
EG A/S	Leading IT Dynamics AX and IT outsourcing partner in Scandinavia. I developed EG's website together with another agency. For three years I was responsible for all additional development to their website. www.eg.dk

Pharmacosmos	Specialized in iron infusion and iron injection pharmaceuticals. For two years I was responsible for all development to Pharmacosmos's website. www.pharmacosmos.com
Downtown	The first Groupon clone in Denmark. I am a co-founder of Downtown and I developed the first version of Downtown's website in Copenhagen. www.downtown.dk

Education and jobs

From	To	Education and job experience
2002	2004	Computer Science at Niels Brock , Copenhagen
2004	2006	IT Consultant at Framfab (today Digitas), Copenhagen
2006	2009	IT Consultant at Twins Consulting , Copenhagen
2009	Today	Started my own company, IT FUTURE , working freelance focusing on .NET web development, Umbraco CMS and Episerver CMS.
2010	Today	Founding partner of Downtown.dk , a startup and the leading Groupon clone in Denmark.

Languages

I am very articulate in both written and oral language. On many projects I have communicated directly with the client, participated in meetings or presentations or written documentation.

Language	Spoken	Written
Danish	Native	Native
English	Full professional proficiency	Full professional proficiency
Dutch *	Limited working proficiency	Limited working proficiency

* A note on my Dutch level: I read and understand spoken and written Dutch completely. I have worked in Dutch speaking work environments and participated in meetings in Dutch. I speak and reply in English, which has proved to be sufficient to work with clients or in companies that traditionally only hire Dutch speaking candidates.
